

From Doing Good to Doing Great

Shanghai | 5 January 2018

An evening with Mr Wang Chien-Shien

Dear Alumni

You are invited to attend an evening conversation with Mr Wang Chien-Shien, Deputy Minister of Economics, Minister of Finance, President of the Control Yuan, Taiwan between 2008 to 2014.

Mr Wang will share his experiences and anecdotes on the topic “From doing good to doing great”. Born in Anhui Province, China in 1938, Mr Wang moved to Taiwan at the age of 10. His father was a low-level military officer and his parents didn’t finish primary school because their families couldn’t afford it. Mr Wang and his younger siblings lived a very simple life. He knows the importance of education because it is the only way to alleviate poverty.
